Greater Cincinnati Quarterly Market Update

End of 2nd Quarter, 2015

INDUSTRIAL

- Milacron LLC, a plastic manufacturer, is moving its headquarters to the city of Blue Ash from Oakley. They will be moving into the Vista Business Center located at 10200 Alliance Road. The Tax Credit Authority approved a 75 percent, 10-year job creation tax credit for the company's expansion project in Cincinnati, Blue Ash, Batavia and Mount Orab. The expansion project will create nearly 300 new jobs and retain another 933.
- Schuermann Properties and Citimark Inc. have contracted to buy 10900 Kenwood Road in Blue Ash, Ohio, from Leyman Manufacturing Corp. The developers would build a new facility, either as a build-to-suit or on a speculative basis. Of the 43 acres, that is zoned for industrial, 26 are to be used for development. The site has room for nearly 530,000 SF of commercial space. The total investment for the new building is expected to be between $15 million and $20 million. Construction is planned to start this Fall.
- Paul Hemmer Co. is building Prologis Inc.'s $25 million distribution center near CVG Airport located at 2125 Gateway Boulevard in Hebron, Kentucky. The distribution center will have room for more than nine football fields under its roof and will include 32-foot clear height ceilings and up to 150 dock doors. Construction is expected to be completed in December 2015.
